GIVING CREDIT WHERE IT'S DUE
USING ASCE STYLE TO CITE SOURCES

Using outside sources like books or articles in your assignment makes your arguments more credible. You demonstrate that your arguments are not just your opinion, but are based on evidence.

When you use other people's ideas in your work, you must observe the rules of academic integrity and cite your sources. Citations prevent any confusion over what is original to you and what you are borrowing; citation styles like APA (American Psychological Association) or MLA (Modern Language Association) supply a standard method for identifying sources.

Use the examples in this brochure to help you cite your sources accurately. If you need more guidance, contact your instructor, the UT Arlington Writing Center, or a librarian.

DOCUMENTING SOURCES

CITING REFERENCES IN THE BODY

In the text, cite publications by listing the last names of the authors and the year, which is called the author-date method of citation; e.g./ (Duan et al. 1990; Frater and Packer 1992a). Prepare an appendix listing all references alphabetically by last name of the first author. For anonymous reports and standards, alphabetize by the issuing institution.

Examples:

Single Author
(Taylor 2000).

Two Authors
(Lampel and Shamsie 2003).

Three or More Authors
(Carson et al. 2006).

References Within the Paper
See <http://pubs.asce.org/authors/journal>

CREATING THE REFERENCE LIST

At the end of the paper, combine all sources cited in the body into "References" in the Appendix. Alphabetize by last name of the first author. For anonymous reports and standards, alphabetize by the issuing institution. Use a hanging indent and single-space the reference section.

Make sure reference information in the APPENDIX. REFERENCES is complete and accurate ... including as necessary and in the following order:

- Last names and initials of all authors
- Year of Publication
- Title of paper, report, or book chapter in quotes
- Title of book or name of periodical; volume number; issue number (or month)
- Name of publisher (for books and proceedings)
- City and state of Publication (for books, proceedings, and non-U.S. journals)
- and inclusive pages

INFORMATION FOR THE REFERENCE LIST

Include all of the information that will allow someone else to find the same resources. For print sources, authors can be personal or corporate. Include editors and chapter titles if applicable in the citation. If a whole book is used, or pages here and there, then page number need not be included in the citation.

Book

Author, A.A. (Year). Book title, Publisher, Place of Publication.

AISC. (2005). Seismic provision for structural steel buildings, Chicago.

Hanson, R.D., Soong, T.T. (2001). Seismic design with supplemental energy dissipation devices, Monograph No. 8, EERI Oakland, California.

International Code Council (ICC). (2006). International building code, 2006 ed., Delmar Cengage Learning, Clifton Park, N.Y.

Chapter in an Edited Book with Different Authors

Author, A.A. (Year). "Chapter title." Book title, Editor(s), Place of Publication: Publisher, Pages.

Ramm, E. (1981). "Strategies for tracing the nonlinear response near limit points." Nonlinear finite element analysis in structural mechanics, E. Wunderlich, E. Stein, K. J. Bathe, eds., Springer, Berlin.

Conference Proceedings and Symposiums

Include the sponsor of the conference or the publisher of the proceedings.

Author 1, Author 2, Author 3, etc. (Year). "Title of paper." Name of Conference or Proceedings, Sponsor or Publisher, Place of Publication [city, state, country], Pages.

Wang, L.R.L., Ishibashi, I., and Wang, J.C.C. (1991). "Inventory and seismic loss estimation of Portland water/sewer systems. GIS application to buried pipelines." Proceedings of the 3rd US Conference on Lifeline Earthquake Engineering, ASCE, New York, NY, USA, 490-499.

Government Reports

Author 1, Author 2, and Author 3, etc. (Year). "Title of paper." Name of paper. Name of Government Agency, Place of Publication.

National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. (1992). "Oil spill case histories 1967-1991: summaries of significant U.S. and international spills." Report No. HMRAD 92-11, Hazardous Materials Response and Assessment Division, Dept. of Commerce, Seattle, WA.

Journal Article

Please consult the ASCE Style Guide for appropriate journal abbreviations or check out <http://woodward.library.ubc.ca/research-help/journal-abbreviations/> to view the journal abbreviations online.

Author 1, Author 2, Author 3, etc. (Year). "Title of article." Title of Journal abbreviated, Volume number(Issue number or month), Pages.

Stahl, D.C, Wolfe, R.W., and Begel, M. (2004). "Improved analysis of timber rivet connections." J. Struct. Eng., 130(8), 1272-1279.

Patents

Inventor(s). (Year). "Full title of invention.:" Country Patent Office Number.

Kimura, M. and Nakano, K. (2005). "On-vehicle navigation apparatus, turnoff road guiding method, driving lane specifying device, and driving lane specifying method." U.S. Patent No. 7,724,872.

Standards

Author, A.A. (Year). "Title of standard." Standard number, Place of Publication.

American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM). (2011). "Standard test method for determining tensile properties of geogrids by single or multi-rib tensile method." D6637, Philadelphia.

Technical or Research Reports

For reports authored by institutions: spell out institution acronym on first use, and follow with acronym in parenthesis, if applicable. If subsequent references were also author by that same institution, use only the acronym. For reports authored by persons, include the full institution name—no acronym—and its location.

Author, A.A. (Year). "Title of report." Report Number. Publisher, Place of Publication.

Woods, R.D. (1997). "NCHRP Synthesis 253: Dynamic effects of pile installations of adjacent structures." National Cooperative Highway Research Program, Transportation Research Board National Research Council.

Theses and Dissertations

Author, A.A. (Year). "Title of thesis." Institution Name, Place of Institution.

Naveen, Naveen. (2002). "Web-based, interactive display of three-dimensional finite element mathematical models for structural steel connections." M.S. Thesis, University of Texas, Arlington, Arlington, TX.

Unpublished Material

Unpublished material is not included in the references but may be cited in the text as follows:

(John Smith, personal communication, May 16, 1983) or (J. Smith, unpublished internal report, February 2003).
