DALLAS SOCIETY FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center

Speech and Hearing Center

June 1, 1961

The annual report of the Dallas Society for Crippled Children is submitted in the following seven tables.

In addition to diagnosis and treatment for children with cerebral palsy, speech problems, and hearing loss, the Center also carried out a student training program in speech and hearing therapy, physical therapy, occupational therapy, and psychodiagnosis. Also, lectures were provided for medical students. Finally, a modest amount of research was carried out.

Respectfully submitted,

Philip N. Hood
Executive Director
