A Compliment.—We cannot imagine a more handsome compliment than has been paid by the citizens of Saltillo, to Gov. Warren and the garrison in this place, composed of companies A. and I. of the 1st Illinois Regiment. Learning that the Gov. and these companies were about to leave, and that others were to take their place, a meeting composed of the principal citizens of Saltillo was immediately held and a memorial drawn up, signed, and despatched to Gen. Taylor, praying him to change the order sending these companies away, and that they might remain until the close of the war. This was of course without the knowledge of Col. W.
