

A Little Man With a Big Job

Down at the State Capitol in Austin there's a little man holding down a big job, Treasurer of Texas, the biggest State in the Union. His name is Charley Lockhart and he's 45 inches tall and weighs 130 pounds. He has held this office for nine years, during which time more than a billion dollars in state funds have passed through his hands. The oddity of his staff is that his chief clerk is Jesse James and the assistant is Miss Helen Purser. Let's take a brief tour of the Treasurer's office in the following series of pictures and get better acquainted with this little man.

AN INTERESTING SIGHT is to see Charley, the son, lifting his dad in and out of the auto each day at the Capitol. Charley is his constant companion.
