

*The University of Texas at Arlington
The University of Texas at Austin
The University of Texas at Dallas
The University of Texas at El Paso
The University of Texas of the Permian Basin
The University of Texas at San Antonio
The University of Texas at Tyler*

*The University of Texas Health Science Center at Dallas
The University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston
The University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston
The University of Texas System Cancer Center
The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio
The University of Texas Health Center at Tyler
The University of Texas Institute of Texan Cultures at San Antonio*

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS SYSTEM

601 COLORADO STREET AUSTIN, TEXAS 78701

Office of the Chancellor

Janey Briscoe of Uvalde was appointed to a six-year term on The University of Texas System Board of Regents by Governor Bill Clements on January 9, 1981.

She was elected Vice-Chairman of the U.T. Board of Regents on April 15, 1983.

Mrs. Briscoe received both her B.S. and M.S. degrees in education from The University of Texas at Austin. She is a graduate of Austin High School, Austin, Texas.

Mrs. Briscoe, wife of the former Governor Dolph Briscoe, took part in numerous public service activities during the six years she served as First Lady of Texas. She was chairman of The Generation Connection, which coordinated the efforts of human welfare and service agencies to increase public awareness of the needs of mature Texas citizens. She also founded and headed the First Lady's Volunteer Program which helped coordinate the activities of volunteer groups across the State.

Mrs. Briscoe has worked closely with Mental Health and Mental Retardation projects for the handicapped and with Sheltered Workshops, providing work for the handicapped.

She played a vital role on the Mansion Committee of Arts and Humanities to preserve the historical significance of the Governor's Mansion.

Janey Briscoe - Page 2

She is a founding member of De Las Encinas Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution, a past president of Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Auxiliary, a director of Uvalde United Fund and a Cub Scout leader for seven years. She is a continuing worker for Girl Scouts and a board member of Uvalde Opera House Restoration. Mrs. Briscoe is a member of Uvalde Music Club, American Association of University Women and Uvalde El Progreso Library.

Mrs. Briscoe is a student of sculpture and studies at McNay Art Institute, San Antonio. She frequently gives talks on Texas' first ladies.

She and Governor Briscoe have three children: Dolph III, Janey Vaughan, and Cele Carpenter. They attend the Baptist Church and make their home at Rio Frio Ranch in Uvalde.

###

April 1983