Dear Miss Smith:

Your application for admission to the Graduate School has been approved. Admission to the Graduate School does not guarantee admission to candidacy for a degree. Admission to candidacy will be granted only after a period of successful graduate work. This period will vary with the degree being sought.

The following provisions apply:

Unconditional admission

Probational admission

Admission as "unclassified graduate student" (work is not to be credited toward a graduate degree)

Admission to candidacy

Major Library Science

Minor _____

Undergraduate prerequisites to be made up:

As determined by the Director, School of Library Science.

The Director of your major department is: Miss D. Genevieve Dixon

Please consult with the Director about details of your program.

Careful attention should be given requirements in the Graduate Catalogue and to periodic bulletins and directives as issued.

To obtain the maximum return from their investment of time and money, Graduate students are strongly urged to register for a full schedule of semester hours, although not more than 16 semester hours may be included in any one semester, and no more than one semester hour per week done in summer sessions.

James Newcomer
Dean of Graduate Studies
